

Abstract

The presentation starts with a brief overview of the physics of black hole production at LHC, and the current results of the search for them in the CMS collaboration.

Then the black hole decay to Higgs boson is proposed as a research topic for the analysis based on the event phenomenology and enhancement of signal events over SM expectation.