

Abstract

Several approaches for the search for $H \rightarrow WW \rightarrow e\mu$ including cut-based, multivariate and multi-dimensional fit methods are presented. Results are presented and compared with ATLAS results. Possibilities for further studies are discussed.