

Abstract

The recent results from LHC and Tevatron on direct searches for the standard model (SM) Higgs boson (H) in PP(Pbar) collisions at the LHC and Fermilab Tevatron are presented. With new data taken from the LHC (1/fb) and Tevatron (8.6/fb) a larger region at high mass has been excluded.